- MONOPOLY

Combining functionality with comfort, this Atlanta meeting room is ideal for a speaker or a presentation, and can also be used as a small theater, private meeting area or breakout session. Strategize your next deal or create an event for your organization that will monopolize the attention of your guests.

- CRANIUM

Creativity, conversation and energetic thinking flow naturally in this intimately designed space, perfect for small groups and brainstorming. Guests can even get a breath of fresh air or take an invigorating stretch in the adjacent private patio, which also has views of downtown Atlanta. The deck also serves as a cozy pre or post dinner cocktail area.

- LIFE

Infuse urban energy into your Atlanta meeting, party or reception by using the cityscape as a dynamic and ever-changing backdrop. This meeting room has large windows with beautiful views of Marietta Street, ideal to keep your group's tempo up.

- RISK

This meeting room services as your own private theater for presentations or your latest visual creation. With full blackout capability and a state-of-the-art projector, you can tailor this room to suit.

- THE BOARD ROOM SUITE

Elevate the status and success of your next round table or retreat. Spacious and inviting, this sophisticated Atlanta meeting room features an executive table with recessed electrical panels, LCD projector and screen, and red leather ergonomic chairs for that pivotal working or strategy session.

An added feature of this room, the living room with its flat screen television and cozy furniture creates a relaxed atmosphere. This adjacent room is ideal for phone calls and private conversations. Raise the bar during your high level meetings.
